MACAO GP

Originally conceived by a group of Macao residents and motor fanatics, the Macao Grand Prix began in 1954 as a race for amateur enthusiasts. However, it quickly flourished into a professional race meeting. It is known for being the only street circuit racing event in which both car and motorcycle races are held. Every year in November hundreds of racing drivers and riders compete in different categories of motor-racing, including single-seaters, touring cars and motorbikes.
